Vs.

Defendants

FILED
Time 12:18 PM
Date 12-5-23
Lori Hammock
Circuit Court Clerk

1. Webador.com / Torenallee 20, 5617BC Eindhoven, Netherlands.
2. Stripe.com / 354 Oyster Point Boulevard, San Francisco, Ca 94080.

Complaint for Antitrust, Unfair or Deceptive Acts Prohibited and Solicitation of crime, which has harmed the Plaintiff's small business.

Jurisdiction

1. Defendant 1, Webador, is a company located at Torenallee 20, 5617BC Eindhoven Netherlands.
2. Defendant 2, Stripe, is an international company located at 354 Oyster Point Boulevard San Francisco, CA 94080.
3. Plaintiff, Maxwell Kremer, is a business owner in Overton County, Tennessee. His address is 470 Swallows Chapel Rd. Cookeville, Tn 38506.

4. The Court has jurisdiction regarding this matter according to T.C.A. § 39-11-118

Restitution to victims of crime, which reads:

“(a) In addition to the punishment authorized by the specific statute prohibiting the conduct, it is a part of the punishment for any offense committed in this state that the person committing the offense may be sentenced by the court to pay restitution to the victim...”

Facts

5. In November of 2023, the Plaintiff purchased Sellgauntlets.com from Webador.com that promised an online store internet credit card service from Stripe.com.
6. Sellgauntlets.com is the Plaintiff's trade, as owner of the registered trademark beverage manufacturer brand business website.
7. Stripe used an ad on it's website that reads(See Exhibit):“Use Stripe to handle all of your payments-related needs,...”
8. The Plaintiff's payment related need was an online store to accept credit card payments from beverage customers.
9. The Defendant was bad by not handling the payments-related needs, did not provide a functioning online store, after the Plaintiff paid Webador.com. approximately $100 for the online store web builder domain name website.
10. Defendant's ad continues to be read on it's website as “...manage revenue operations,...”
11. The Defendant refused to allow the Plaintiff's business, Sellgauntlets.com, to manage revenue operations.( See exhibit)

12. Defendant's ad reads: "...and launch or invent new business models."
13. The Plaintiff's business model is impacted and damaged by the revoked service, transacted between Plaintiff and Defendant, as Plaintiff was buyer, after full payment was made to Webador.com.
14. Webador.com has an ad that reads: "Start your own online store", "Setting up an online store is surprisingly easy".
15. Those advertisement slogans are misleading because the Plaintiff's online store did not start yet, by means of credit card function for customer purchases, because of Defendants' delinquency.
16. The Defendants' crimes have caused the Plaintiff sadness.
17. Every day that the sellgauntlets.com online store is off, is every day that Sellgauntlets.com might have made potential income, and didn't, because the online store function was intentionally revoked by Stripe and/or Webador.
18. Such intention resulted in Defendants' misdemeanors Unfair or Deceptive Acts Prohibited T.C.A. § 14-18-104(9), a crime described as false-advertising.
19. The conspiracy between Stripe and Webador is a felony act because T.C.A. §39-12-102 is a Tennessee law that says it is a felony to instruct employees to commit misdemeanors.
20. The Plaintiff purchased service that was advertised to him, and did not receive the service, due to Webador's and/or Stripe's employee misconduct.
21. Sellgauntlets.com's online store does not accept credit card payments yet, despite Plaintiff purchased an online store webbuilder, and input necessary criteria there.

22. The Defendant was so intentional, to do false-advertising when it sent an email to the Plaintiff with a subject tag in the email header that read: "Closure of your Stripe account for Maxwell Kremer".
23. The Stripe email admits that sellgauntlets.com's credit card machine turned off was a "decision" that they made. It reads: "I understand how you should be feeling due to our decision on your account." (See exhibit)
24. The Plaintiff submitted a civilian report to the F.B.I. at www.ic3.gov that was a distress regarding commerce ordeals. (See exhibit)
25. The Defendant advertised services with intent not to sell them as advertised.

Cause of Action

26. T.C.A. §39-12-102 Solicitation- Defenses disallowed. reads:

"(a)Whoever by means of oral, written, or electronic communication, directly or through another, intentionally commands, requests or hires another to commit a criminal offense, or attempts to command, request or hire another to commit a criminal offense, with the intent that the criminal offense be committed, is guilty of the offense of solicitation."

27. T.C.A. §39-12-103 Criminal conspiracy. reads:

"(a)The offense of conspiracy is committed if two (2) or more people, each having the culpable mental state required for the offense that is the object of the conspiracy, and each acting for the purpose of promoting or facilitating commission of an offense, agree that one (1) or more of them will engage in conduct that constitutes the offense."

28. T.C.A. § 14-18-104(9) reads:

“(a)Unfair or deceptive acts or practices affecting the conduct of any trade or commerce constitute unlawful acts or practices and are Class B misdemeanors. (b)The following unfair or deceptive acts or practices affecting the conduct of any trade or commerce are declared to be unlawful and in violation of this part...” “...(9) Advertising goods or services with intent not to sell them as advertised;”.

29. 15 U.S.C. § 1, a federal law reads:

“Every contract, combination in the form of trust, or otherwise, in conspiracy, or restraint among trade or commerce among the several States, or with foreign nations, is declared to be illegal...”

That statute is a law that describes obstructing commerce as a felony, termed “Antitrust”. The Defendants restrained the Plaintiff’s business. By doing so, the Plaintiff is claimant pursuant to laws that describe victim restitution.

Relief

30. The Plaintiff demands Punitive Damages against the Defendant. The Plaintiff is entitled to monetary relief by law.

31. 18 U.S.C. § 3771 (a)(6) explains the Plaintiff has a right to full and timely restitution as provided in law.

32. T.C.A. §29-39-104 Punitive damages reads:

“(a) in a civil action in which punitive actions are sought (1) Punitive damages may only be awarded if the claimant proves by clear and convincing evidence that the defendant against whom punitive damages are sought acted maliciously, intentionally, fraudulently or recklessly.”

33. The Defendant was reckless to commit felony.

34. The Defendant was fraudulent to sell office-business-services that it did not do.

35. T.C.A. §29-39-104(7)(D) reads:

“If the defendant’s act or omission results in the defendant being convicted of a felony under the laws of this state, another state, or under federal law, and that act or omission caused the damages or injuries;”

36. The punitive damages may be larger than $500,000 because the Defendant’s acts were felony.

37. T.C.A. §29-39-102 Civil damage awards reads:

“(a) in a civil action, each injured plaintiff may be awarded (1) Compensation for economic damages suffered by each injured plaintiff; and (2) Compensation for any noneconomic damages...”.

38. T.C.A. §29-13-104 reads:

“Offenses to which compensation applies. Payment of compensation shall be made to the claimant in accordance with this chapter for personal injury to or death of the victim which resulted from: (1)An act committed in this state,...”

39. T.C.A §29-13-105 reads:

“Persons eligible for compensation... (1)A victim of a crime;...”

40. T.C.A. §29-13-402(4)(A) defines victim as “a person...who suffers...physical, mental, or pecuniary injury as a...result of a crime”.

41. T.C.A. § 40-35-104 Sentencing Alternatives. reads:

“(a) A defendant convicted of a felony or a misdemeanor in this state shall be sentenced in accordance with this chapter...(c) The following sentencing alternatives in any appropriate combination are authorized for defendants... (2) Payment of restitution to the victim...”

42. T.C.A. §29-39-104(4) reads:

“In all cases involving an award of punitive damages, the trier of fact, in determining the amount of punitive damages, shall consider, to the extent relevant, the following: the defendant’s financial condition and net worth,... The trier of fact shall be instructed that the primary purpose of punitive damages is to punish the wrongdoer and deter similar misconduct in the future by the defendant ...”

43. The plaintiff demands $4,000,000 monetary relief.

44. And so, the Judge should agree that the Defendants’ enormous wealth amount is cause to grant monetary relief to the Plaintiff, by proof in evidence, of crimes and victimization spawned by the Defendants. The Punitive Damages relief is priced high enough that the Defendants would be less likely to repeat the crimes. The Defendants’ net worth, as multi-branded companies, is enormous, at over $12billion.

45. 18 U.S.C. § 3771(d)(1) reads:

“A person accused of the crime may not obtain any form of relief under this chapter.

46. The two Defendants should both be regarded as equally 50% liable.

Injunctive Relief

47. Webador, the owners and all of it's employees, must do prison time for one year.
48. Stripe, the owners and all of it's employees, must do prison time for one year.
49. Both Stripe and Webador must forfeit to seizure all of their electronics equipment properties that are located in the United States of America.
50. The Defendants must be forced to turn on the Plaintiff's credit card online store so that Sellgauntlets.com may become a functioning commercial website.

It is illegal to revoke service. And by doing so, the conspired Defendants must be punished pursuant to Tennessee Law, in U.S.A., and by federal law if this Complaint is removed to a Federal U.S. District Court. The Plaintiff was victimized, and so he must be granted pecuniary restitution.

At the Circuit Court of Overton County, Tennessee, in the United States of America, the Plaintiff believes this Complaint to be respectful, proper, meritorious, evidentiary, truthful and righteous.

[Important] Additional review completed for Stripe... 11/18/23

From: Stripe

Info

Hi Maxwell,

Thank you for providing additional information about your business, Maxwell Kremer (Stripe account ID: acct_10B3oTQ68cGe39CH).

After reviewing your account again, we've confirmed that your business represents a higher risk than we can currently accept. We are unable to accept payments for Maxwell Kremer (Stripe account ID: acct_10B3oTQ68cGe39CH) moving forward.

Payouts to your bank account have been paused, and we will not issue refunds on any card payments by December 1, 2023, although they may take longer to appear on the card statement. If there are insufficient funds on your account to cover any refunds, these refunds will not be processed. Any outstanding funds will remain on your account. Please visit your Dashboard for a list of the charges to be refunded.

If you'd like to further appeal our decision, please contact us at support@stripe.com.

From: Stripe Support

Info

Hi there,

After a further review of your business, we've determined that we still won't be able to accept payments for your business moving forward.

Payouts to your bank account are paused, and we will issue refunds on the affected card payments 5 business days from the account closure day, although they may take longer to appear on the cardholders' statements.

Your account will show a list of the charges that will be refunded. The refunds won't be processed if you don't have enough funds to cover them, and any outstanding funds will remain in your account.

Please let us know if you have any questions.

Best,
Linda

Will my subscription be renewed automatically?

Am I tied to an ongoing subscription?

How do I cancel?

Do I need technical knowledge to build a website?

No, that's not necessary! We work hard to make building a website as easy as possible - so anyone can do it.

Can I start an online store?

Yes, you can start an online store! With a Pro plan, you can list up to 10 products, while a Business plan allows you to list unlimited products. For more information, take a look at our help center.

Can I create a business email address?

My question isn't answered here - what should I do?

Overton County	STATE OF TENNESSEE CIVIL SUMMONS <small>page 1 of 1</small>	Case Number 2023-CV-50
Maxwell Kremer vs. Stripe.com

Served On:

stripe.com 354 Oyster Point Boulevard, San Francisco, CA 94080

You are hereby summoned to defend a civil action filed against you in Circuit Court, Overton County, Tennessee. Your defense must be made within thirty (30) days from the date this summons is served upon you. You are directed to file your defense with the clerk of the court and send a copy to the plaintiff's attorney at the address listed below. If you fail to defend this action by the below date, judgment by default may be rendered against you for the relief sought in the complaint.

Issued: 12-5-23

Suzi Hammett / Trial Clerk
 Clerk / Deputy Clerk

Attorney for Plaintiff: Maxwell Kremer Pro Se
470 Swallows Chapel Rd. Cookeville, TN 38506

NOTICE OF PERSONAL PROPERTY EXEMPTION

TO THE DEFENDANT(S): Tennessee law provides a ten thousand dollar ($10,000) personal property exemption as well as a homestead exemption from execution or seizure to satisfy a judgment. The amount of the homestead exemption depends upon your age and the other factors which are listed in TCA § 26-2-301. If a judgment should be entered against you in this action and you wish to claim property as exempt, you must file a written list, under oath, of the items you wish to claim as exempt with the clerk of the court. The list may be filed at any time and may be changed by you thereafter as necessary; however, unless it is filed before the judgment becomes final, it will not be effective as to any execution or garnishment issued prior to the filing of the list. Certain items are automatically exempt by law and do not need to be listed; these include items of necessary wearing apparel (clothing) for your self and your family and trunks or other receptacles necessary to contain such apparel, family portraits, the family Bible, and school books. Should any of these items be seized you would have the right to recover them. If you do not understand your exemption right or how to exercise it, you may wish to seek the counsel of a lawyer. Please state file number on list.

The list may be filed at any time and may be changed by you thereafter as necessary; however, unless it is filed before the judgment becomes final, it will not be effective as to any execution or garnishment issued prior to the filing of the list. Certain items are automatically exempt by law and do not need to be listed; these include items of necessary wearing apparel (clothing) for your self and your family and trunks or other receptacles necessary to contain such apparel, family portraits, the family Bible, and school books. Should any of these items be seized you would have the right to recover them. If you do not understand your exemption right or how to exercise it, you may wish to seek the counsel of a lawyer. Please state file number on list.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR OVERTON COUNTY, TENNESSEE

MAXWELL KREMER,
Plaintiff,

vs.

WEBADOR.COM and
STRIPE.COM,
Defendants.

Case No. 2023-CV-50

Part II

FILED

Time 9:55 AM

Date 4-11-24

Lori Hammock
Circuit Court Clerk

NOTICE OF RECEIPT OF EX PARTE COMMUNICATION FROM PLAINTIFF

Plaintiff, MAXWELL KREMER, has forwarded via U.S. Mail a document, which was not filed with the Clerk, titled "Application for Order to Dispense Funds by Default," which was received in Chambers on January 24, 2024, and which is attached hereto as Exhibit 'A.' Said Application contains no indicia of service on the Defendants and is, therefore, an ex parte communication. Accordingly, the Court respectfully requests that the Honorable Clerk certify and send a copy of this Notice and attached exhibit to all the attorneys now of record and to any party not represented by an attorney.

ENTER: this, 9th day of April, 2024.

CAROLINE E. KNIGHT,
Circuit Court Judge, Part II

State of Tennessee, County of Overton
I, Lori Hammock, Clerk of the Circuit-Criminal and General Sessions Courts for said County and State do hereby certify the foregoing to be a full, and complete copy of the Notice of in the case of Kremer vs Webador and Stripe
as the same appears of record on file in my office in the town of Livingston in: Overtown Co.
Witness my hand and official seal, this the 12 day of April 2024
Lori Hammock Circuit Court Clerk

Receipt

At the Circuit Court of Overton County, Tennessee

Plaintiff, Pro Se

Maxwell Kremer

Docket#: __2023-cv-50__

470 Swallows chapel rd. #B Cookeville, Tn 38506.

Vs.

Defendants

- 1. Webador.com / Torenallee 20, 5617BC Eindhoven, Netherlands.
- 2. Stripe.com / 354 Oyster Point Boulevard, San Francisco, Ca 94080.

Application for Order to dispense funds by default

The Plaintiff requests this Order to be granted so that it may be signed by the Judge.

It is a fact that the Defendant parties have failed to plead or otherwise defend against the Plaintiff's Complaint for affirmative relief, within 30 days, for Docket # 2023-cv-50.

The Plaintiff prepares this order here to be signed by the Judge within 7 days from the date the order is granted, in accordance to L.R.P. 22.01(a).

T.R.C.P. 12.01 reads: "A defendant shall serve an Answer within thirty (30) days after the service of the summons and complaint upon him."

See the exhibit, the Secretary of State Summons database website screenshot, depicts Stripe.com was served Summons and Complaint on December 13, 2023. Webador.com was served Summons and Complaint by U.S. mail on December 11, 2023. See the exhibits that are two postal receipts for the Webador.com mailing service, and one delivery receipt describing 12-21-23 as the day Webador received the Complaint and Summons. And so after 30 days the Plaintiff may prevail by default, as this case has become uncontested by the Defendants, with no Answer.

T.R.C.P. 4.05 (5) reads:

“When service of summons, process, or notice is provided for or permitted by registered or certified mail, under the laws of Tennessee, and the addressee, or addressee’s agent, refuses to accept delivery, and it is so stated in the return receipt of the United States Postal Service, the written return receipt, if returned and filed in the action, shall be deemed an actual and valid service of the summons, process or notice. Service by mail is complete upon mailing.”

T.R.C.P. 4.05(5) suggests the 30 day time limit, for Defendant Stripe.com’s Answer, started when the Summons and Complaint were mailed because the mail was either declined or received, after sent. The Court may verify with the Tennessee Secretary of State office to reveal the date when Summons and Complaint were received/declined.

Defendant Webador seems to not be a corporation because it has no search results at the SEC.gov website.

The Plaintiff expects the Clerk, or Court, or Judge, to force the Defendants to pay the relief to the Court, and then subtract Court tax, and then pay the remainder of the money sum to Maxwell Kremer by paper check, or perhaps wire transfer.

The taxing of Court costs must be calculated as _____% subtracted from $4,000,000 relief.

At the Circuit Court of Overton County, Tennessee, in the United States of America, the Plaintiff believes this Application to be respectful, proper, meritorious, evidentiary, truthful and righteous.
